

Please do not allow further erosion of access to airwaves. The consumer has been backed so far into the corner by oppressive copyright legislation recently, that soon there will be a giant government approved monopoly on all types airwave products.